POLICIES ON RECRUITMENT AND PROMOTION

SSKV College of Arts & Science for Women is committed to attracting and retaining highly qualified, competent, and dedicated faculty and staff who uphold the values, vision, and academic excellence of the institution. The College follows a transparent, fair, and inclusive recruitment process in accordance with the norms of the University Grants Commission (UGC), the affiliating University, and statutory regulations. Equal opportunity, diversity, and merit-based selection form the core principles of our recruitment and promotion policies.

1. Recruitment Process (Teaching Staff)

1. The Principal informs the Management about the teaching and administrative vacancies to be filled during the academic year.
2. The College office releases advertisements inviting applications from eligible candidates as per UGC and University norms.
3. After the last date for submission, applications are scrutinized and shortlisted based on qualifications, experience, and prescribed eligibility criteria.
4. The Interview Board consists of the Secretary/Management Representative, the Principal, and the concerned Head of the Department.
5. Candidates are assessed on subject knowledge, teaching skills, communication ability, professional attitude, and overall suitability.
6. Based on performance, a merit list is prepared and candidates are ranked.
7. Appointment orders are issued by the Management/Secretary after final approval.
8. Heads of Departments are appointed based on seniority, academic performance, leadership qualities, and contribution to the institution.
9. The Academic/administrative coordinators are appointed from among the faculty based on merit and institutional requirements.

2. Promotion Process

The College strictly follows the norms prescribed by the UGC and the affiliating University for the promotion of teaching staff.

- Promotions from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor and higher cadres are carried out as per UGC regulations.
 - Eligibility criteria include academic performance, teaching experience, research contributions, and possession of a Ph.D. degree where applicable.

3. Grievance Redressal Process

Any grievance related to teaching or non-teaching staff is addressed through:

- One-to-one meetings with the Principal (by prior appointment).
- Appropriate administrative action based on institutional policies and fairness.

4. Training and Development

SSKV College emphasizes continuous professional development for all staff members.

1. Faculty undergo need-based training to update their academic and professional competencies.
2. Performance Appraisal Reports are used to identify training needs.
3. Newly recruited staff participate in an induction programme and enrichment sessions.
4. Faculty regularly attend Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs), workshops, and seminars.
5. Staff are encouraged to attend Orientation and Refresher Courses conducted by UGC-HRDC.
6. Online courses through MOOC platforms are promoted for continuous upskilling.

5. Pay and Incentives

The pay for staff is upward of minimum basic pay and allowances offered by the UGC, and decided by the management from time to time on the basis of qualification, experience, research and other relevant considerations

6. Leave Rules

Leave policies are framed in accordance with prevailing academic norms and institutional regulations.
