NSS SPECIAL CAMP MARCH – 2023

DATE: 25-03-23 to 31-03-23 REPORT

VENUE: DHAMAL VILLAGE

S.S.K.V College of arts & science, Kancheepuram, organised the NSS special camp at Dhamal village. Several programmes were conducted in community hall at Dhamal. The camp lasted for a week between 25.03.23 to 31.03.23 with 50 NSS volunteers. Daily the programme was co-ordinate by one programme officer and one staff member of our college. The camp's theme was "Healthy youth for healthy India."

Day – 1:

The community hall in Dhamal hosted an inaugural ceremony on March 25, 2023, at 10:00 a.m. The honouree was Dr.K.Thirumamagal, Principal of S.S.K.V College of Arts and Science. The guest was honoured by Mrs.A.Ezhilarasi, the NSS Programme Officer. Several people had assembled in the community hall. We also welcome Mr.Selvam, the vice-president of the panchayat, and Mr. S. Shanmugam, the president. The chief guest's lecture on health and hygiene came after the show. According to her, maintaining proper cleanliness can help stop the spread of infections and diseases. . It encouraged not only the NSS students it was a platform for every individual present there. Our Principal graced us with their valuable words. She also praises the Panchayat president for providing the community hall for a week to conduct the camp. The programme marked it conclusion by 12.00 P.M.

During the afternoon session, the NSS student volunteers began going door to door in the village handing out pamphlets that included the schedule of events. The rally event promoting the "Swatch Bharat Campaign Youth Empowerment" marked the end of the day.

Day – 2:

A group of seven dentists from the kanchipuram Districts of the Indian Dental Association organized a free dental camp and an awareness event on Sunday, March 26, 2023 to emphasize the value of good oral hygiene. Two of them provided instructions on how to take care of one's teeth, and more significantly, how to clean one's teeth properly, using charts and models. Every person at the camp is examined for dental conditions. The camp's primary goals are to encourage oral hygiene maintenance and give the villagers basic dental health education.

The Government High School in Dhamal was cleaned up by the NSS volunteers in the afternoon. Because to their diligence and hard work, the school's ground were looks beautiful.

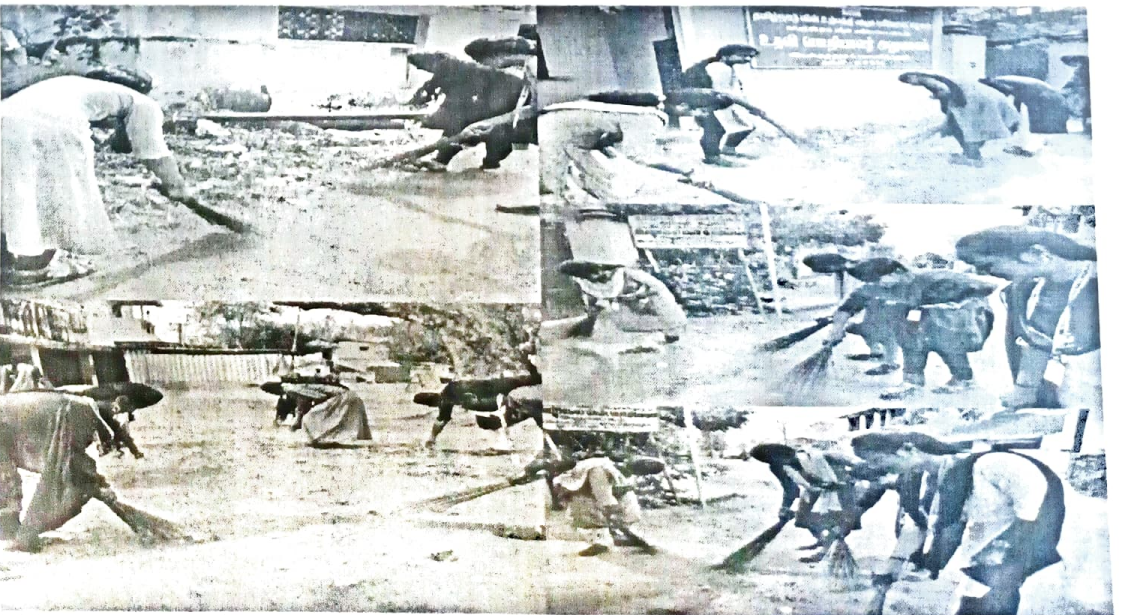

Day – 3:

The day began on March 27, 2023, with the cordial welcome of Mr. Meenakshi Sundharam, Research Manager, Accenture, Chennai. "How to save, invest, and multiply the money in a good manner" was the topic of his special address. He also shared some thoughts on entrepreneurship and youth career opportunities. The lecture was full with insightful information about the importance of work and their opportunities for young people. Dr. V. Rajagopalan, our college dean, Dr. K. Thirumamagal, our principal, and a few staff members were present at this occasion. Following his remarks, our dean also spoke and urged the youth, emphasizing that intelligence is more valuable than effort. Additionally, he thanks and praises the chief guest for his inspirational remarks.

After this programme we started for sapling the plants in the premises of Government Hr, sec school, Dhamal. Mr. Manivel the Headmaster, Mr. S. Shanmugam the panchayat president and Mrs. Mohana, the panchayat member were planted the saplings.

Finally, our NSS student volunteers extended their hands in cleaning up the garbage's in the street of the village. The village streets brightened and became lovely as result of their attention, greatest effort, and diligence.

Day - 4:

On March 28, 2023, Government Middle School students in the eighth grade participated in a yoga class. Ms.M.Arulambigai and V.Priya, two professors from SSKV College, led this class. They taught some fundamental and easy poses, warmed up exercises, and both sitting and standing poses were done. Every student willingly and enthusiastically participated. The NSS volunteers then got to work cleaning the grounds of the Shiva temple and Amman Temple in Dhamal Village. Due to their diligence and effort, the temple has a very neat and tidy appearance.

Day - 5:

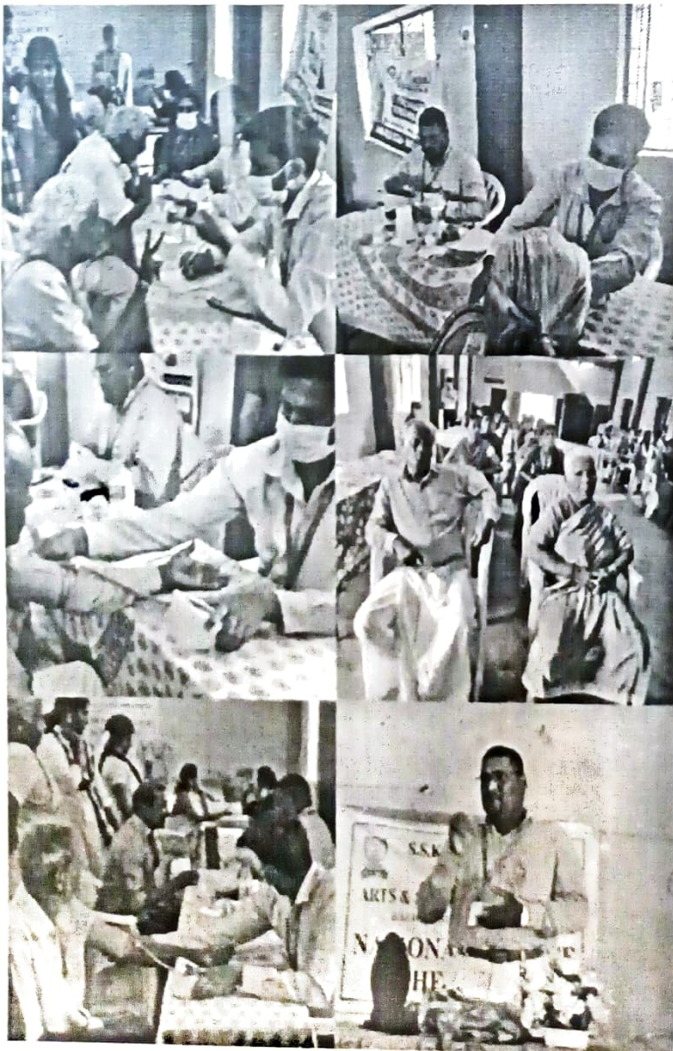

A free eye checkup was organized on 29th March 2023 by Aggarwal eye-hospital. The camp was exclusively organized for the poor people who cannot afford quality treatment for their problems in eyes. The NSS volunteers managed the queue and crowd. As expected a large number of crowds came for the eye checkup.

Day – 6:

A free Diabetic health check-up was organized on 30.03.23 by a team of members from Mohan diabetic centre, Kanchipuram. The camp began around 9.00 in the morning. One of the doctors gave speech about diabetics and the types of diabetics. In this camp they check each and every individual for blood sugar and blood pressure. Every patient has received explanations from the nutritionist regarding how to control their blood sugar levels through diet. The NSS volunteers were worked to manage the queue and crowd. As per the expectation many people came for the diabetic health check-up

Next session of the day was about the awareness of fundamental laws. Mr. M. Subramani, who is currently employed as an advocate in the Chennai High Court, was the session's guest speaker. The guest speaker's goal is to provide current and fundamental legal information to the village residents and students. He emphasized to the students the need of having a solid understanding of fundamental laws. This session was very interactive and students were participated enthusiastically.

Day - 7:

On the final day of the camp, the programme was commenced by Kanchipuram District, cybercrime branch department Mr.M. Rajagopal, Inspector of police, was the special guest who discussed cybercrime and the precautions people should take to safeguard their personal data. Along with him, two more police officers were present. Additionally, they spoke to the pupils about the issues of utilizing Twitter, Facebook, and Whatsapp, which made them aware of crimes committed through online.

Finally, the day concluded with a valedictory celebration. The programme began by welcoming the guest of honour, Dr.Venkatesan, principal of Kanchi Sri Krishna College in Kanchipuram. He began by explaining the importance and services of the NSS. The speech was quite informative, and they learned a lot about the significance of education.

At the end of the session, the NSS programme officer expresses gratitude and encouragement to the NSS student volunteers for their support, hard work, and effort. The purpose of the camp was to inculcate various values such as social, cultural, moral, educational and ethical. All of the student volunteers enjoyed it very much and people of the village were got benefited and happy too. Mr.S. Shanmugam, Panchayat president appreciated the successful seven days camp conducted by our college.
